

Let the People Vote on Marriage in the District of Columbia

These candidates value the right of D.C. residents to vote on the definition of marriage. Support candidates that honor the values, views, voices, and votes of the people.

Make a statement that a vote on marriage matters!

Vote for these D.C. Democrats

In the Straw Poll on

Saturday, June 12, 2010

Democratic State Committee Convention

- For Mayor, Democrat
Leo Alexander
- For Ward 6 D.C. Council, Democrat
Kelvin Robinson
- For Ward 5 D.C. Council, Democrat
Delano Hunter

In the November 2nd General Election only, D.C. voters can vote for two candidates for At Large D.C. Council and only one can be a Democrat. Therefore, only in November will Motley be on the ballot as an Independent.

On November 2nd only, Remember to Support

- For At Large D.C. Council,
Independent
Anthony J. Motley

Send a message that marriage matters. D.C. leaders resorted to "Selective Democracy" to deny residents the right to vote on marriage. Now the battle is on in the courts and with elections. Support candidates that respect democracy and are not against a vote on marriage. Six out of ten residents support a vote on marriage. Thirty-one states already voted on marriage.

Ask all candidates where they stand on a vote on marriage. Let the people vote.